POLISH STUDIES AT UIC

---

Undergraduate Reception:
Tuesday, April 15th, 2pm,
Daley Library, Room 1-470

Join us for our first Polish Studies
Undergraduate Reception!

Take a break with food and refreshments, to learn about the exciting developments in the growing Polish Studies Program at UIC. Meet our Department and learn about exciting opportunities and funding for study and travel in Poland this summer, supported by the Hejna Fund at UIC and the Polish Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and learn about the range of classes and extracurricular opportunities offered by our growing Polish Studies program at UIC. We will also unveil a new and exciting webpage that lets you see the full scope of activities and opportunities related to Polish Studies at UIC in one place. If you are currently a Polish Major/Minor, or interested in taking courses in Polish history, culture or language, join us! Bring your friends who may be interested to learn more about Polish Studies at UIC.

What is Polish Studies at UIC?

POLISH STUDIES AT UIC is a growing interdisciplinary initiative under the leadership of Michał Paweł Markowski, Hejna Family Chair in Polish Language and Literature, and Keely Stauter-Halsted, Hejna Family Chair in the History of Poland.

Here is what you can do with Polish Studies:

- Major/Minor in Polish (Language, Literature, Culture, Film, and History courses offered)
- On-campus: Polish-American Students' Association (PASA), Film Club, Conversation Hour, and Language Studio.
- Off-campus: Stay informed about cultural events in and around the city by checking the Polish Studies webpage: uicpolishstudies.publish.uic.edu
- Travel Abroad!!! Summer, Semester and Year-Long Programs are offered and scholarships are available.
- This summer we are offering POL 115, Introduction to Polish Culture (4 week session)!
